

Registration Now Open!

Public Broadcasters International

BACK IN PERSON this year

16-18 November 2022, Tokyo

Registration is now open for Public Broadcasters International (PBI), an annual conference to bring together public service media from all around the world to exchange ideas and information and discuss the many challenges we face.

Taking full advantage of Tokyo, a city of rich history, unique culture, and warm hospitality, PBI Tokyo will offer delegates inspiring sessions to socialize and network.

We will kick off the event at the Tokyo National Museum, Japan's oldest museum of its kind, celebrating its 150th anniversary this year. The latest initiative with NHK's cutting-edge technology and the Museum's national treasures will bring you a first-hand experience of partnership between culture and media.
